

ECHOES

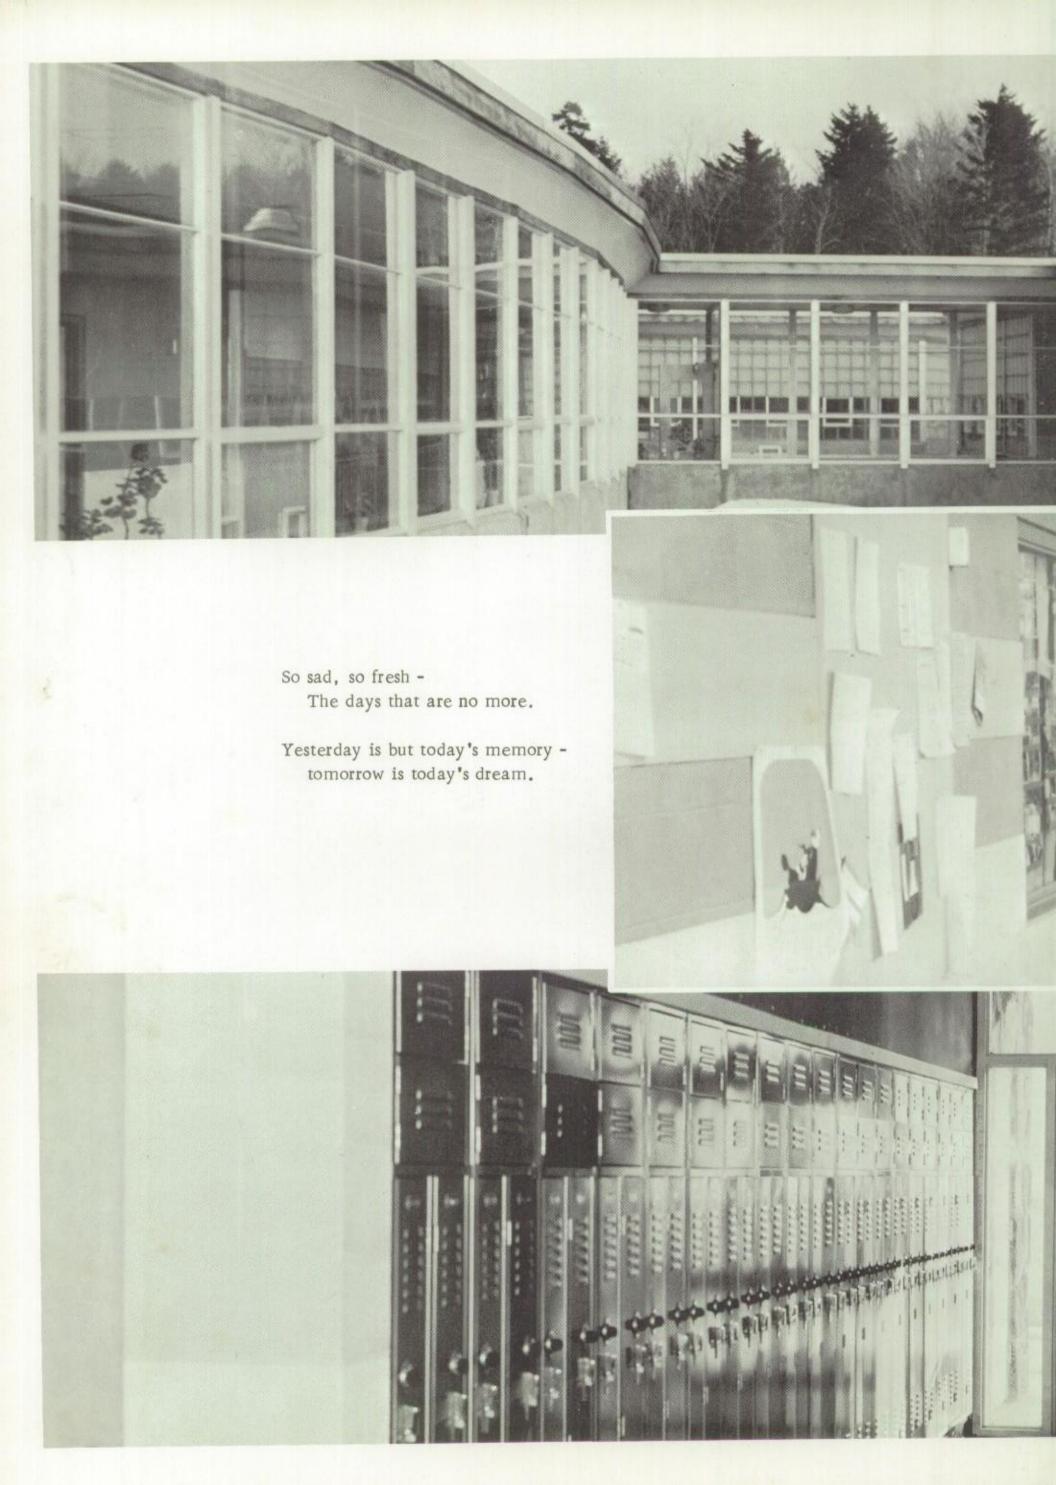

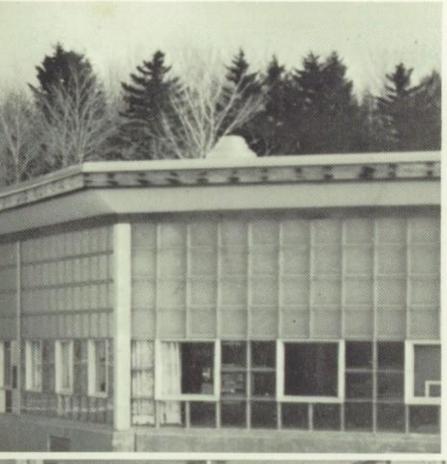

THE 1968 ECHOES

PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
THE WHITINGHAM SCHOOL
JACKSONVILLE, VERMONT

From the snow-clad slopes of Burrington To Sadawga's wooded shore.
Sing we now our Alma Mater Honored name forever more.

Praise this house of life and learning, Every hall and sunny room. Where the cloth of life is woven As upon a weaver's loom.

Pleasure has three facets:
anticipation, realization, remembrance.

And let today embrace the past with remembrance,
And the future with longing.

The Senior Class proudly dedicates the 1968 Echoes to Martha Fox, for the endless assistance and friendship she has given to us.

"And in the sweetness of friendship let
There be laughter, and sharing of pleasures.
For in the dew of little things the heart
Finds its morning and is refreshed."

The Profit, Kahlil Gibran

FOREWORD

The class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Eight proudly presents to the public our "Echoes." The amount of effort in meeting the deadlines was very well worth it.

To Miss Carol Ann Conway, the staff would like to give the warmest thanks for helping us struggle through our senior year. Many thanks, Miss Conway, it was much appreciated!

To the seniors it was a year that never will be forgotten. In the 1968 "Echoes" we hope to share our memories with you.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Memories about growing up will always be a part of your new life after graduation from high school. Fortunately, the painful experiences will fade: the most pleasant memories will remain.

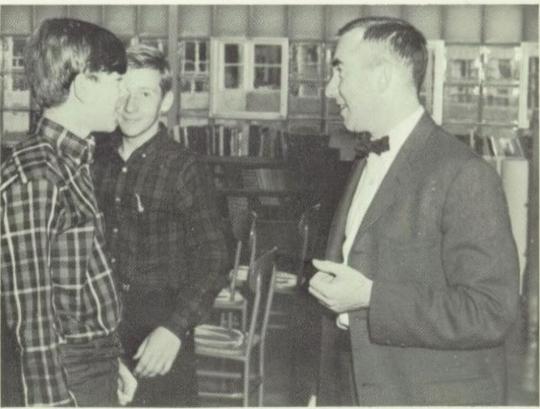

Nabokov remembers his childhood in this way. "I see again my classroom, the blue roses of the wall paper, the open window... A sense of security, of well being, of summer warmth pervades my memory. The robust reality makes a ghost of the present... Everything is as it should be, nothing will ever change."

Although the world will change considerably, and each of you will painfully adapt your day-to-day life, the warm sunshine will always brighten the geraniums on the window ledge along that spotless hallway. I trust that your memories will serve you well.

FIELD HOCKEY

KNEELING: Isabelle Carner (junior co-capt.) Nancy Adams (senior co-capt.) SEATED: M. VanWyck, J. Dix, J. Jillson, N. Coombs, J. Adams, L. Bird, N. Birch. STANDING: K. Smith (manager), D. Morse, A. Bailey, Coach Corcoran, L. Merritt, M. Zong, J. Bemis (manager).

Scorewise the 1967 field hockey team didn't fare too well this season. In skill, experience, and spirit the team has gained much.

The game scores were as follows:

Burr and Burton -	-	-	4	W.H.S1
Arlington	-	-	9	W.H.S0
Wilmington	-	-	2	W.H.S1
Leland and Gray	-	-	3	W.H.S0

Both goals were scored by Judy Dix.

Everyone is hopeful for a very successful season next year since the team will be losing only two seniors and will gain a group of eighth graders who have much skill and will add to the team.

During the 1967-68 season, the Trojanettes not only carried their heaviest schedule ever, but also compiled the best record in the history of WHS girls' basketball, winning 69 percent of their games; 9 wins, 4 losses. For the second year in a row, the Trojanettes gained second place in Molly Stark League action, winning 5 and losing 3. During the regular season, the girls out-scored their opponents, 440-344, and out-rebounded them, 600-369.

Junior captain Nancy Coombs led the scoring for the season, 165; this boosted her career total to 361, which is 23 points shy of breaking the school record of 384 set by Sally Reynolds, '66. Defensively, junior captain Jean Jillson controlled the boards 151 times to lead the Trojanettes in rebounds; also breaking 100 in rebounds were Debbie Ross, 103, and Nancy Coombs, 102.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1968, of Whitingham High School, Suburbs of Jacksonville, Town of Whitingham, Windham County, in the State of Vermont, being in sound mind and generous heart, do declare this our last will and testament.

To the following we bequeath:

Item I. Nancy Adams leaves her dazzling smile to Alice Ryan and her school spirit to "Richie" Lemaire.

Item II. Danny Birch leaves his athletic ability and his bookkeeping problems to David Tracy.

Item III. Frank Dix wills his responsibility to Judy Cook and woodworking ability to Frank Caruso.

Item IV. Richard Gouin leaves his weird sense of humor to Jean Jillson.

Item V. Donna Green wills her 'ace bandage' to Nancy Coombs and her painful hours in Home Ec. with the Seventh Graders to Teresa Plumb.

Item VI. Alan Hadley leaves his worn out skis to Connie Miller and his natural blond hair to Belinda Stone.

Item VII. Phil Hardgrove leaves his wavy hair to Is Carner and his ability to get along with Mrs. Cleaver to Chuck Fowler. (Good Luck, Chuck.)

Item VIII. Marty Howard wills his long hair to Gary Dix and his musical talent to Don Sprague. (Can you sing, Don?)

Item IX. Barry Howes bequeaths his faulty experiments in Mr. Moyer's Chemistry class to Peter King. (Better watch it, Mr. Moyer!)

Item X. Jim Lemaire leaves his fantastic build to Nancy Reynolds and his typing ability to Cecil Green. (Stop looking at those keys, Cecil!)

Item XI. Mike Lowe wills his fluent French to June Dix and his drawing skill to Keenan Russell.

Item XII. Kathy Mc. leaves her cheerleading ability to Yvonne Fairbanks and her Smothers Brothers Albums to Neil VanWyck. (Watch out for those Blue Puma's Neil.)

Item XIII. Kathy Morse bequeaths her yearbook deadlines to Jackie Adams, her friendliness to Sharon Birch.

Item XIV. Dennis Oakes wills his basketball score to Doug Moore and his daring position on Safety Patrol to Gary Birch.

Item XV. Danny Phelps leaves his laugh to Marty Zong.

Item XVI. Robert Reed leaves his hieroglyphics for Mike Bartosewz to decipher and his spelling to Carolyn Tefft.

Item XVII. Jimmy Robinson leaves his pet names, "Bozo", "Crumb-bum," "Ugly Gritch", and "Beautiful" to Jeff Whitehorn.

Item XVIII. Frank Taylor wills his beard to "Harry" Twitchell and his reluctance to pay dues to all slow Juniors.

Item XIX. Dennis Tefft bequeathes his carrot top to Terry Brown and egotism to Ricky Phelps.

Item XX. Richard Tefft leaves his seat in the back of Miss Conway's room to Gary Crosby and his wandering in halls to Gary Dix.

Item XXI. Margo VanWyck bequeathes her quietness to Jan-Marie Howes and her benchwarming to Nancy Coombs.
